

MILITARY COLLECTION
XI. WORLD WAR I PAPERS, 1903-1933, PHOTOGRAPHS AND POSTCARDS

XII. PHOTOGRAPHS AND POSTCARDS

Box No.

Contents

1 Official A. E. F. Photographs, 1918-1919

Photographs taken in England and France by Signal Corps, U.S. Army. In 1920, Robert B. House, collector of war records for the N.C. Historical Commission, purchased from the Signal Corps prints of photographs concerning the Thirtieth and Eighty-first Divisions. Captions are from the Catalogue of Official A. E. F. Photographs Taken by the Signal Corps, U.S.A. (Washington: Government Printing Office, 1919).

17843 (176G8). Lt. Col. Francis M. Hinkle, National Army, divisional adjutant, Thirtieth Division. Watou, Belgium, July 30, 1918.

17844 (177G8). Lt. Col. James C. Taylor, Infantry (Regular Army), National Army, chief signal officer. Headquarters Thirtieth Division. Watou, Belgium. July 30, 1918.

17845 (178G8). Lt. Col. Robert F. Patterson, Regular Army, divisional dental surgeon. Headquarters Thirtieth Division. Watou, Belgium. July 30, 1918.

17846 (179G8). Lt. Col. A. M. Whaley, Regular Army, divisional surgeon. Headquarters Thirtieth Division. Watou, Belgium. July 30, 1918.

17847 (180G8). Capt. E. V. Morrow, United States Reserve Corps, medical training officer. Headquarters Thirtieth Division. Watou, Belgium. July 30, 1918.

17848 (181G8). Capt. R. B. Underwood, United States National Guard, assistant divisional surgeon. Headquarters Thirtieth Division. Watou, Belgium. July 30, 1918.

17849 (182G8). Capt. W. Howard Yeager, United States Reserve Corps, divisional tuberculosis specialist. Headquarters Thirtieth Division. Watou, Belgium. July 30, 1918.

Box No.

Contents

MILITARY COLLECTION
XI. WORLD WAR I PAPERS, 1903-1933, PHOTOGRAPHS AND POSTCARDS

- 1 (cont.) 17850 (183G8). Second Lt. R. C. Jones, United States National Guard, assistant divisional adjutant, divisional postal officer. Headquarters Thirtieth Division. July 30, 1918.
- 17852 (185G8). Maj. Gen. E. M. Lewis, divisional commander Thirtieth Division. Watou, Belgium. July 30, 1918.
- 17853 (186G8). Brig. Gen. S. L. Faison, commanding Sixtieth Brigade, Thirtieth Division. Watou, Belgium. July 30, 1918.
- 17854 (187G8). Brig. Gen. S. L. Faison, commanding Sixtieth Brigade, Thirtieth Division. Watou, Belgium. July 30, 1918.
- 17855 (188G8). Maj. Gen. E. M. Lewis, commanding Thirtieth Division, at his desk. Watou, Belgium. July 30, 1918.
- 18304 (1659J8). Officers of 115th Field Artillery at school of instruction. Camp de Coetquidan, France, July 8, 1918.
- 18305 (1660J8). Battery B, 115th Field Artillery (heavy), on range. Camp de Coetquidan, France, July 8, 1918.
- 18398 (518G8). Capt. J. D. E. Meyers, assistant to G-1. National Guard, Infantry, Thirtieth Division. Watou, Belgium. July 31, 1918.
- 18400 (520G8). Portable electric light and charging plant used in the field. Thirtieth Division. Watou, Belgium. July 31, 1918.
- 18402 (522G8). Col. H. B. Springs, commander of trains, acting divisional quartermaster. Thirtieth Division. Watou, Belgium. July 31, 1918.

Box No.

Contents

- 1 (cont.) 18406 (526G8). Group of staff officers of the general staff and the Second Army Corps at headquarters, Thirtieth Division. First row (left to right): Capt. Augustine S. Janeway, assistant to G-2; Col. Hanson B. Black, chief signal officer, Infantry; Lt. Col. Fred E. Buchanan, assistant to chief of staff; Col. H. S. Hetrich, assistant chief of staff G-4. Back row (left to right): Col. H. B. Ferguson, National Army; Maj. Elmer F. Rice, Infantry, National Army, assistant to G-2; and Maj. Walter O. Boswell, Infantry, assistant to G-8. Watou, Belgium. July 31, 1918.

MILITARY COLLECTION

XI. WORLD WAR I PAPERS, 1903-1933, PHOTOGRAPHS AND POSTCARDS

18465. Not listed in catalogue. Headquarters building at Ellington Field, Houston, Texas, ca. July 1918.

18702 (437G8). Troops of Thirtieth Division passing through St. Martin au Laert on way to Belgian front, accompanied by a British officer. St. Martin au Laert, Belgium. June 29, 1918.

18703 (438G8). Y. M. C. A. headquarters, Thirtieth Division. Watou, Belgium. July 8, 1918.

18704 (439G8). A camp theater in Belgium. St. Jan-ter-Biezen, Belgium. July 9, 1918.

18707 (442G8). First Battalion, 119th Infantry, Thirtieth Division, entering trenches. Watou area, Belgium. July 9, 1918.

18711 (446G8). Col. J. Van B. Metts of 119th Infantry, Thirtieth Division, and staff. Watou area, Belgium. July 10, 1918.

22426 (1490S8). 115th Regiment Field Artillery of the Thirtieth Division, while advancing, pass a group of German prisoners under guard of Co. L, 9th Infantry, on way to the rear. Laronville, France. September 12, 1918.

Box No.

Contents

1 (cont.)

23881 (63T8). Major Todd, commanding officer, 306th Field Signal Battalion, Eighty-first Division. Tonnerre, France. September 25, 1918.

23956 (195T8). Soldiers of Co. A, 306th Field Signal Battalion, Eighty-first Division, signaling to aeroplanes, showing radio set in operation. Maneuver, France. September 7, 1918.

23957 (196T8). Group of American officers. Left to right: Maj. Gen. J. C. Bailey, commanding Eighty-first Division; Lt. Col. C. M. Dowell, Headquarters Sixth Army Corps; Brig. Gen. C. H. Barth, commanding Seventh Division; and Col. C. D. Roberts, chief of staff, Eighty-first Division. Epuneul, Yonno, France, September 7, 1918.

24194 (1623S8). Soldiers of 324th Regiment Infantry, Headquarters Company, Eighty-first Division, trying their skill at building a human pyramid. Knotty Ash, Liverpool, England. August 13, 1918.

MILITARY COLLECTION

XI. WORLD WAR I PAPERS, 1903-1933, PHOTOGRAPHS AND POSTCARDS

24199 (1628S8). Soldiers of 316th Regiment Field Artillery, Eighty-first Division, boarding train at Knotty Ash Depot en route for Southampton. Liverpool, England. August 14, 1918.

24308 (2152S8). Section of general headquarters of the Thirtieth Division. Left to right: Office of commanding general; billet of staff orderlies; office of G-3 chief of staff; office of G-1 ammunition officer; office of the adjutant; and office of the statistical officer. St. Jan-ter-Beizen, Belgium. August 15, 1918.

24309 (2153S8). Section of general headquarters of the Thirtieth Division, showing Maj. Gen. E. M. Lewis in rear. St. Jan-ter-Beizen, Belgium. August 15, 1918.

24310 (2154S8). View of headquarters of the Thirtieth Division, where cars are stored when not in use. St. Jan-ter-Beizen, Belgium. August 15, 1918.

Box No.

Contents

1 (cont.)

24311 (2155S8). Maj. T. J. Wyrick, United States Adjutant General's Department, adjutant of the Fifty-ninth Brigade of the Thirtieth Division. Couthove-Chateau, Belgium. August 19, 1918.

24312 (2156S8). Capt. Fleetwood Cruver, United States Reserves, Medical Corps, brigade sanitary inspector for the Fifty-ninth Brigade, Thirtieth Division, Regiment Infantry. Couthove-Chateau, Belgium. August 19, 1918.

24313 (2157S8). First Lt. Knapp Milburn, aid-de-camp to the commanding general of the Fifty-ninth Brigade, Thirtieth Division. Couthove-Chateau, Belgium. August 19, 1918.

24314 (2158S8). View showing front entrance of Couthove-Chateau, headquarters of the Fifty-ninth Brigade, Thirtieth Division. Couthove-Chateau, Belgium. August 19, 1918.

24315 (2159S8). Dugout intended to protect the "test point" on buried cable. Signalmen working on overground line repairing broken line. Near Poperinghe, Belgium. August 18, 1918.

MILITARY COLLECTION

XI. WORLD WAR I PAPERS, 1903-1933, PHOTOGRAPHS AND POSTCARDS

24316 (2160S8). View from top of tower of town hall, showing destruction of city by shells and bombs. Near Poperinghe, Belgium. August 18, 1918.

24317 (2161S8). View from top of tower of town hall, showing destruction of city by shells and bombs. Near Poperinghe, Belgium. August 18, 1918.

24318 (2162S8). View from top of tower of town hall, showing destruction of city by shells and bombs. Near Poperinghe, Belgium. August 18, 1918.

24319 (2163S8). Brig. Gen. L. D. Tyson, commanding Fifty-ninth Regiment Infantry Brigade, Thirtieth Division, leaving his headquarters in his machine. Convent Camp near Poperinghe, six kilometers from Ypres, Belgium. September 1, 1918.

Box No.

Contents

1 (cont.)

24320 (2164S8). Group of staff officers of Fifty-ninth Regiment Infantry Brigade, Thirtieth Division. Left to right: Brig. Gen. L. D. Tyson; Maj. T. J. Wyrick; First Lt. James Anderson; First Lt. Paul A. Rye; and First Lt. Knapp Milburn. Convent Camp near Poperinghe, six kilometers from Ypres, Belgium. September 1, 1918.

24321 (2165S8). Brig. Gen. L. D. Tyson, brigade commander of the Fifty-ninth Regiment Infantry Brigade, Thirtieth Division, working at his desk at the headquarters of his organization. Convent Camp near Poperinghe, six kilometers from Ypres, Belgium. September 1, 1918.

28390 (115V8). British sending American propaganda to the German soldiers via small balloons. The British are operating with the Twenty-seventh and Thirtieth American Divisions. Templeaux-la-Fosse, Somme, France. October 10, 1918.

28401 (126V8). View looking west from the Canal de St. Quentin, showing the ground over which the Americans had to fight to get to the canal, the strong point of the Hindenburg line at Bellicourt. A tank can be seen in the foreground on the slope. Thirtieth Division. Bellicourt, Aisne, France. October 10, 1918.

MILITARY COLLECTION

XI. WORLD WAR I PAPERS, 1903-1933, PHOTOGRAPHS AND POSTCARDS

28444 (398V8). Members of the Thirtieth Division searching German prisoners a few hundred yards behind the front line. Near St. Martin-Riviere, Aisne, France, October 17, 1918.

28445 (399V8). Major Hartigan, the forward observer of the Thirtieth Division, reporting the progress of the battle at St. Martin-Riviere, back to division headquarters. Near St. Martin-Riviere, Aisne, France, October 17, 1918.

Box No.

Contents

1 (cont.)

28449 (403V8). Platoon of the 118th Infantry Regiment (formerly Second Regiment North Carolina Infantry and detachment from First Regiment North Carolina Infantry, and Second Regiment South Carolina Infantry), Thirtieth Division, going forward in the streets of St. Martin-Riviere, Aisne, France, October 18, 1918.

28451 (405V8). Ration detail of the 113th Machine Gun Battalion taking supplies to their advanced positions. Molain, Aisne, France, October 18, 1918.

28453 (407V8). Members of Co. K, 117th Regiment Infantry (formerly Third Regiment Tennessee Infantry), Thirtieth Division, digging themselves in for the night after an advance which started in the morning. Molain, Aisne, France, October 18, 1918.

28454 (408V8). View taken inside the city showing the 119th Ambulance Station, Thirtieth Division. Molain, Aisne, France, October 18, 1918.

29686 (90V8). Madame Josephine Vassaux, a resident of Montbrehain, whose husband was killed by a shell thrown into the city just previous to its capture by the American troops on October 6, 1918. Her husband, Charles Vassaux, aged 80, had been confined to his bed for three years and the old lady refused to leave his bedside until the authorities had completed his burial arrangements, five days after his death. She is shown relating the incident to First Lt. C. A. McDaniel, of the 105th Field Signal Battalion (formerly Co. A, North Carolina Signal Corps), Thirtieth Division. Montbrehain, Aisne, France, October 14, 1918.

29689 (93V8). Thirtieth Division salvage dump for material and equipment hastily gathered up on the battlefield. Montbrehain, Aisne, France, October 14, 1918.

MILITARY COLLECTION
XI. WORLD WAR I PAPERS, 1903-1933, PHOTOGRAPHS AND POSTCARDS

Box No.	Contents
1 (cont.)	29690 (94V8). Thirtieth Division salvage dump for material and equipment hastily gathered up on the battlefield. Montbrehain, Aisne, France, October 14, 1918. 29691 (95V8). View of Montbrehain, showing 105th Regiment Engineers, Thirtieth Division, encamped in the valley in front of the city. Montbrehain, Aisne, France, October 14, 1918. 30531 (144V8). Performance for the Thirtieth American Division by the concert party of the Second Division of the Australian Expeditionary Force. Capt. L. E. L. E. Potto, officer in charge. Herbecourt, Somme, France, October 4, 1918. 30532 (145V8). Performance for the Thirtieth American Division by the concert party of the Second Division of the Australian Expeditionary Force. Capt. L. E. L. E. Potto, officer in charge. Herbecourt, Somme, France, October 4, 1918. 30533 (146V8). Maj. Gen. Edward M. Lewis exhibiting an antitank gun captured by the Thirtieth Division in the battle at Bellicourt, France. Herbecourt, Somme, France, October 5, 1918. 30535 (148V8). German prisoners captured in the offensive at Brancourt carrying out the American wounded of the 118th Regiment Infantry (formerly First South Carolina Infantry and detachments of First North Carolina Infantry, and Second South Carolina Infantry), Thirtieth Division. Jeancourt, Aisne, France, October 8, 1918. 30539 (152V8). Part of the transport train of the 119th Infantry (formerly Second North Carolina Infantry and detachments of Second Tennessee Infantry, and First North Carolina Infantry), Thirtieth Division, going up with supplies. The transport is passing the prisoner cage, and a few of the German prisoners captured by the Thirtieth

Box No.	Contents
1 (cont.)	Division during the day can be seen. Bellicourt, Aisne, France, October 8, 1918.

MILITARY COLLECTION

XI. WORLD WAR I PAPERS, 1903-1933, PHOTOGRAPHS AND POSTCARDS

30540 (153V8). German prisoners captured by the Thirtieth Division. One thousand two hundred and forty prisoners passed through this cage during the day. 119th Infantry (formerly Second North Carolina Infantry and detachments of Second Tennessee Infantry, and First North Carolina Infantry), Thirtieth Division, can be seen in the background going to the front to carry on the offensive. Village of Noroy in the extreme distance. Bellicourt, Aisne, France, October 8, 1918.

30630 (764V8). Maj. Gen. George W. Read, United States Army, commanding Second Army Corps; Maj. Gen. Edward M. Lewis, commanding Thirtieth Division; Brig. Gen. L. D. Tyson, United States Army, spectators at the Second Army Corps field meet boxing bout. Near Corbie, Somme, France, November 5, 1918.

30662 (822V8). The Twenty-seventh and Thirtieth Divisions hold a field meet on the battlefields made famous during their recent drive through the Hindenburg line. View of boxing bout and audience. Second Army Corps. Near Corbie, Somme, France, November 5, 1918.

30665 (825V8). Rain did not prevent the holding of the field meet. Members of the Twenty-seventh and Thirtieth Divisions on their way across the recent battlefields to enjoy a day of rest and recreation. Near Corbie, Somme, France, November 5, 1918.

30666 (826V8). Rain did not prevent the holding of the field meet. Members of the Twenty-seventh and Thirtieth Divisions on their way across the recent battlefields to enjoy a day of rest and recreation. Near Corbie, Somme, France, November 5, 1918.

30667 (827V8). Rain did not prevent the holding of the field meet. Members of the Twenty-seventh and Thirtieth

Box No.

Contents

1 (cont.)

Divisions on their way across the recent battlefields to enjoy a day of rest and recreation. Near Corbie, Somme, France, November 5, 1918.

30668 (828V8). View of the grandstand at the Second Army Corps field meet. Left to right: Maj. Gen. Edward M. Lewis, commanding Thirtieth Division; Maj. Gen. George W. Read, commanding Second Army Corps; and Brig. Gen. George S. Simonds. Near Corbie, Somme, France, November 5, 1918.

MILITARY COLLECTION

XI. WORLD WAR I PAPERS, 1903-1933, PHOTOGRAPHS AND POSTCARDS

30669 (829V8). View of the grandstand at the Second Army Corps field meet. Left to right: Maj. Gen. Edward M. Lewis, commanding Thirtieth Division; Maj. Gen. George W. Read, commanding Second Army Corps; and Brig. Gen. George S. Simonds. Near Corbie, Somme, France, November 5, 1918.

30670 (830V8). Left to right: Maj. Gen. Edward M. Lewis, commanding general, Thirtieth Division, and Maj. Gen. George W. Read, commanding Second Army Corps field meet. Near Corbie, Somme, France, November 5, 1918.

30672 (832V8). Left to right: Brig. Gen. George S. Simonds and Maj. Gen. George W. Read inspecting German field pieces captured by the Twenty-seventh and Thirtieth Divisions. Second Army Corps. Near Bellicourt, Aisne, France. October 29, 1918.

30673 (833V8). Brig. Gen. George W. Simonds, in rear, and Maj. Gen. George W. Read, commanding general Second Army Corps, looking over German armored car captured by the Twenty-seventh and Thirtieth Divisions. Near Bellicourt, Aisne, France. October 29, 1918.

30674 (834V8). Maj. Gen. George W. Read and Brig. Gen. George S. Simonds, right. View of battlefield made famous by the Twenty-seventh and Thirtieth Divisions. Near Bellicourt, Aisne, France. October 29, 1918.

30676 (836V8). American heroes at rest on foreign soil. Maj. Gen. George W. Read and Brig. Gen. George S. Simonds

Box No.

Contents

1 (cont.)

inspecting the cemetery where the brave soldiers of the Twenty-seventh and Thirtieth Divisions rest in peace. Bony, Aisne, France. October 29, 1918.

30677 (837V8). American heroes at rest on foreign soil. Maj. Gen. George W. Read and Brig. Gen. George S. Simonds inspecting the cemetery where the brave soldiers of the Twenty-seventh and Thirtieth Divisions rest in peace. Bony, Aisne, France. October 29, 1918.

30678 (838V8). American heroes at rest on foreign soil. Maj. Gen. George W. Read and Brig. Gen. George S. Simonds inspecting the cemetery where the brave soldiers of the Twenty-seventh and Thirtieth Divisions rest in peace. Bony, Aisne, France. October 29, 1918.

MILITARY COLLECTION

XI. WORLD WAR I PAPERS, 1903-1933, PHOTOGRAPHS AND POSTCARDS

30687 (847V8). Australians on their way to the front where they fought side-by-side with the Twenty-seventh and Thirtieth American Divisions in the drive through the Hindenburg line. Roisel, Somme, France, October 3, 1918.

30689 (849V8). General view of the battlefields over which the Twenty-seventh and Thirtieth Divisions fought in the drive through the Hindenburg line. Every shell hole was used for machine-gun emplacements. The cliff in the distance was completely fortified with hundreds of machine guns. La Cateau, Nord, France, October 19, 1918.

30691 (851V8). View of part of the battlefield where the Twenty-seventh and Thirtieth Divisions met stubborn resistance. In the foreground is shown the resting place of two Americans. La Cateau, Nord, France, October 19, 1918.

30692 (852V8). A wrecked German plane brought down by men of the Twenty-seventh Division. La Cateau, Nord, France, October 19, 1918.

33371 (2029T8). German shell exploding in the distance. Shrapnel from the shell killed two Tommies, five horses,

Box No.

Contents

1 (cont.)

and wounded the moving-picture operator of the Thirtieth Division, United States Army. Molain, near Vaux-Andigny, Aisne, France. October 17, 1918.

39707 (633D8). Chief of Artillery, A. E. F., going to another firing position. Personnel, left to right: Maj. Gen. Ernest Hinds, Chief of Artillery, A. E. F.; Brig. Gen. A. D. Andrews, A. C. of S. G-1, General Headquarters; Col. R. P. Reeder, Coast Artillery Corps, commanding 316th Regiment Field Artillery; Col. Jay E. Hoffer, O. D.; Maj. John P. Young, Coast Artillery Corps, commanding Fifth Battalion Trench Artillery; Lt. Col. C. R. Snow, Coast Artillery Corps, commanding Twelfth Regiment Trench Artillery. Vitrey, Meurthe et Moselle, France. November 21, 1918.

40216 (1275D8). Donkeys captured from the enemy by Eighty-first Division used to carry water to rolling kitchens behind our lines. Haudiomont, Meuse, France. November 10, 1918.

MILITARY COLLECTION

XI. WORLD WAR I PAPERS, 1903-1933, PHOTOGRAPHS AND POSTCARDS

40217 (1276D8). Machine gunners of 318th Machine Gun Battalion awaiting orders to go into action. Near Haudiomont, Meuse, France. November 10, 1918.

40219 (1278D8). Rock quarry used to cover attack of the Eighty-first Division, showing rolling kitchen and supplies found there. Near Haudiomont, Meuse, France. November 10, 1918.

40220 (1279D8). Remains of railroad in valley captured by 324th Regiment Infantry, Eighty-first Division. Near Haudiomont, Meuse, France. November 10, 1918.

40223 (1282D8). 324th Regiment Infantry, after the firing ceased. Some are cleaning rifles, others are sleeping. Manheulles, Meuse, France. November 11, 1918.

40226 (1285D8). Men of Eighty-first Division who were left in hospitals when the division sailed for France.

Box No.

Contents

1 (cont.)

These men were three months getting to their final destination. Ramburvillars, Meuse, France. October 27, 1918.

40228 (1287D8). French war veteran showing some of his souvenirs to Private Wood of the Photo Unit, Eighty-first Division. Ramburvillars, Meuse, France. October 27, 1918.

40232 (1291D8). Dugout of commanding officer, 306th Ammunition Train, Eighty-first Division. Sommedieu, Meuse, France. November 1, 1918.

40236 (1295D8). Capt. G. Hammond, commanding Co. A, 306th Field Signal Battalion, inspecting German helmet on which his name is engraved. Fort de Vaux, Meuse, France. November 15, 1918.

40246 (1305D8). Eighty-first Division headquarters at Belrupt, Meuse, France. November 12, 1918.

40255 (1314D8). Graves of Maj. L. C. Ward and First Lt. H. M. Smith, buried by Chaplains F. C. Vikes [T. I. Vickers] and J. T. Jennes [Jenne] of 324th Regiment Infantry, Eighty-first Division. Haudiomont, Meuse, France. November 14, 1918.

MILITARY COLLECTION
XI. WORLD WAR I PAPERS, 1903-1933, PHOTOGRAPHS AND POSTCARDS

40260 (1319D8). Pvt. R. A. Huddleston of 306th Field Signal Battalion testing out a phone line to division headquarters. Eighty-first Division. Oconee, Meuse, France. November 27, 1918.

42037 (1199D8). 306th Field Signal Battalion, Eighty-first Division, eating chow by creek. Rambervillars, Vosges, France. October 22, 1918.

42038 (1200D8). Y. M. C. A. secretary, Eighty-first Division, E. D. Williams[on], establishing "Y" at Rambervillars, Vosges, France. October 22, 1918.

Box No.

Contents

1 (cont.)

42039 (1201D8). Men of 322nd Ambulance Company, Eighty-first Division, lined up at a Red Cross bath. Water has to be carried several blocks, and coal is scarce. Rambervillars, Vosges, France. October 23, 1918.

42040 (1202D8). Fourteen-year-old French boy adopted by men of division surgeon's office, Eighty-first Division. He is proud of his rank as sergeant but would like to be a captain. October 24, 1918.

42041 (1203D8). Officers and men of division surgeon's office, Eighty-first Division, who have adopted a fourteen-year-old French boy. Rambervillars, Vosges, France. October 24, 1918.

42042 (1204D8). Men of 306th Supply Train distributing beef to different organizations of the Eighty-first Division in American trucks. Rambervillars, Vosges, France. October 24, 1918.

42044 (1206D8). 306th Supply Train awaiting arrival of supplies. Rambervillars, Vosges, France. October 24, 1918.

42045 (1207D8). French monument built in 1861 used by H. V. 316th Machine Gun Battalion. Second Lt. J. J. S. Sitton and men at entrance. Haudiomont, Meuse, France. November 10, 1918.

42046 (1208D8). View from German outpost captured by 324th Regiment Infantry, Eighty-first division, showing regiment slowly being relieved in eye of enemy observers. Manheulles, Meuse, France. November 10, 1918.

MILITARY COLLECTION
XI. WORLD WAR I PAPERS, 1903-1933, PHOTOGRAPHS AND POSTCARDS

42047 (1209D8). Men of 323rd Regiment Infantry entering Manheulles, Meuse, France, after its capture. Men shown escaping up street across which enemy had built stone wall. November 10, 1918.

Box No.

Contents

1 (cont.)

42048 (1210D8). Men of 323rd Regiment Infantry entering Manheulles, Meuse, France, after its capture. Looking into town from stone wall that enemy had built across street. November 10, 1918.

42051 (1213D8). Maj. Gen. J. T. Dickman, Third Army; Maj. Gen. C. T. Bailey, Eighty-first Division. Belrupt, Meuse, France. November 11, 1918.

42052 (1214D8). Ruins of church, result of Allied shell fire during attack of Eighty-first Division. Etain, Meuse, France. November 15, 1918.

42053 (1215D8). Ruins of church, result of Allied shell fire during attack of Eighty-first Division. Looking toward altar. Etain, Meuse, France. November 15, 1918.

42055 (1217D8). Maj. E. P. Todd, commanding 306th Field Signal Battalion, and French lieutenant, the first Allied officers to enter this town after Germans had withdrawn, four hours previous. Note civilians that immediately gathered to greet them. Spincourt, Meuse, France. November 16, 1918.

42058 (1220D8). First Allied prisoners that came through our line in Verdun sector. They were given one loaf of bread and told to go where they chose. Note variety of nationalities. Abaucourt, Meuse, France. November 13, 1918.

42059 (1223D8). Graves of men of the 324th Regiment Infantry who fell during the last three hours of war. Looking toward woods which the enemy held when the armistice went into effect. Manheulles, Meuse, France. November 13, 1918.

44947 (3054N9). Officers of 308th Field Signal Battalion. In front, Maj. G. W. Dickerson. Front row, left to right: Capt. R. W. Irwin, Signal Corps; Capt. C. E. Wiley, Signal Corps; Capt. R. P. McComas; Capt. G. G. Griffeth,

MILITARY COLLECTION
XI. WORLD WAR I PAPERS, 1903-1933, PHOTOGRAPHS AND POSTCARDS

Box No.	Contents
1 (cont.)	Signal Corps. Back row: Lt. H. G. Badger, Signal Corps; Lt. L. E. McCordle, Signal Corps; Lt. W. E. Ireton, Signal Corps; Lt. M. D. Rigby, Signal Corps; Lt. H. C. Reynolds, Signal Corps; Second Lt. C. G. Ingersol, Signal Corps; Second Lt. C. C. Herrings, Signal Corps. Arenberg, Germany. January 8, 1919. 44989 (3301N9). Army corps and division insignia. Eighty-first Division. Vincennes, Seine, France. January 27, 1919. 44990 (3302N9). Army corps and division insignia. Eighty-first Division. Vincennes, Seine, France. January 27, 1919. 44991 (3303N9). Army corps and division insignia. Eighty-first Division. Vincennes, Seine, France. January 27, 1919. 44992 (3304N9). Army corps and division insignia. Eighty-first Division. Vincennes, Seine, France. January 27, 1919. 44993 (3305N9). Army corps and division insignia. Eighty-first Division. Vincennes, Seine, France. January 27, 1919. 44994 (3306N9). Army corps and division insignia. Eighty-first Division. Vincennes, Seine, France. January 27, 1919. 51437 (2794F9). Class in reconnaissance, group 4, American range finder in use; adjustment of finder. In foreground, at finder, left to right: Maj. R. T. Armstrong, 345th Regiment Field Artillery, Ninetieth Division, with Capt. E. B. Ripley, instructor of class. Back row: Maj. H. H. Coughlin, 11th Regiment Field Artillery, Sixth Division; Capt. T. W. Stewart, 18th Regiment Field Artillery, Thirty-second Division; Capt. J. H. Kelly, 13th Regiment Field Artillery, Fourth
Box No.	Contents
1 (cont.)	Division; Capt. E. M. Graves, 21st Regiment Field Artillery, Fifth Division; Capt. C. H. Scott, 150th Regiment Field Artillery, Forty-second Division; First Lt. C. J. Baetzold, 309th Regiment Field Artillery, Seventy-eighth Division; and First Lt. W. G. Burgess, 156th Regiment Field Artillery, brigade officer attached from Eighty-first Division. Le Valdahon, Doubs, France. January 30, 1919.

MILITARY COLLECTION
XI. WORLD WAR I PAPERS, 1903-1933, PHOTOGRAPHS AND POSTCARDS

Portraits of Chairmen of County Councils of Defense

Bridgers, John L., Edgecombe County (2)
Britton, N. W., Hertford County
Brooks, F. H., Johnston County (2)
Clement, William K., Davie County
Crutchfield, T. S., Gates County (2)
Efird, J. S., Stanly County (2)
Griffin, James L., Chatham County (2)
Hairston, Robert, Rockingham County (2)
Killian, John Yates, Catawba County (2)
Majette, Mark, Tyrrell County
Norfleet, James K., Forsyth County (2)
Oates, R. M., Henderson County (2)
Paddison, A. H., Pender County (2)
Reinhardt, R. S., Lincoln County (2)
Seely, Frederick L., Buncombe County (2)
Vanstory, C. M., Guilford County (2)
Victor, H. M., Mecklenburg County (2)
Warren, J. K., Jones County (2)
Weaver, F. M., Buncombe County (4)
Webb, J. C., Orange County (2)
Williamson, Lynn B., Alamance County
Woodard, Walter F., Wilson County (2)

Miscellaneous Photographs:

Airplanes at Taliaferro Field, Fort Worth, Texas: three photographs donated by Mrs. C. L. Whitehead

Box No.	Contents
1 (cont.)	Allen, Lt. Reynold T.: photographs (twenty-six) taken in France by Lieutenant Allen of Kinston, Co. D, 321st Infantry, 1918 Elgar, Private, Co. 9, 602nd Engineers Godbold, Edwin D., of Hendersonville: four pages from a scrapbook of photographs (twenty-three) taken by Edwin D. Godbold while in the Student Army Training Corps at the

MILITARY COLLECTION

XI. WORLD WAR I PAPERS, 1903-1933, PHOTOGRAPHS AND POSTCARDS

University of Illinois, 1918-1919; a picture postcard of the barracks; and a small panoramic of Co. 2, December 1918

Grant, Sgt. Walter G. Grant, 341st Fire Truck and Hose Co., Quartermaster Corps; group shot of the company, Hoboken, New Jersey; and third-grade class at Live Oak School third grade class, ca. 1912, which included six members of the Grant family

Library building at Camp Greene, 1918

McCoy, George: photograph taken in unidentified cemetery, November 1918

Marshburn, Djalma: photograph taken at Raleigh studio

Norburn, Charles Strickland, of Buncombe County, a surgeon in U.S. Navy

Olds, Fred A.

Olympia Cotton Mill, Columbia, S.C.

Page, Walter Hines, Ambassador to the Court of St. James, 1916

Polignac, Marquis and Marquise Melchior de, with the French High Commission [she was an American, nee Nina Crosby; they visited Raleigh in January 1918]

Box No.

Contents

1 (cont.)"Spirit of Today": a trio of the French Army Band, drumming for liberty

Statues of German kings (five photographs): toppled by citizens after the Germans had evacuated Alsace and Lorraine

Stewart, J. C.: photographs (twenty-one) from the estate of veteran J. C. Stewart depicting aircraft, railroad artillery, tanks, and U.S. soldiers standing in a pit of human bones

Tanks, French: two official U.S. Army Signal Corps

MILITARY COLLECTION

XI. WORLD WAR I PAPERS, 1903-1933, PHOTOGRAPHS AND POSTCARDS

photographs. No. 12146 is not in the catalogue; No. 13954 is captioned: "French tank which broke down during attack on Cantigny. Cantigny, France. May 31, 1918."

Unidentified aviator

Unidentified book: twelve pages of photographs and sketches from a book concerning the 33rd Battalion, Machine Gun Corps (British)

Unidentified lieutenant, 119th Infantry, 30th Division:
photograph taken at Goldsboro studio

Unidentified young man: photograph taken at Durham studio

U.S. Submarine Chaser 340: two photographs of vessel that operated along N.C. coast and sank a German submarine off Beaufort in August 1918; photographs donated by Sparrow Gales Blackwood of Raleigh, chief machinist of the 340

Vester, James B., of Nash County, a private in Co. B, 119th Infantry, 30th Division, killed in action, September 29, 1918

Box No.

Contents

1 (cont.) "Wolf, Sergeant," photograph taken at studio in Germany. Possibly Sgt. Alcuin D. Wolff of Tobaccoville, Forsyth County, who served overseas from July 1918 to September 1919

2 Aerial and Other Oversized Photographs

Aerial Photographs:

Bellicourt and surrounding area (aerial mosaic #205V.5.A, showing Sections "A" and "G"). Labeled 105th Engineers on back)

Bellicourt and surrounding area (aerial mosaic #205V.5.A, showing Sections "A" and "G").

Bellicourt and surrounding area to the north (aerial mosaic #205V.5.C, showing Sections "S", "A", and "G").

MILITARY COLLECTION

XI. WORLD WAR I PAPERS, 1903-1933, PHOTOGRAPHS AND POSTCARDS

Montbrekain to Bearevoir (aerial mosaic #205V.5.C, showing Sections "B", "C", "H", and "I").

Canal Du Nord (aerial mosaic), G-2 Intelligence, First Army, August 29, 1918. Taken June-August 1918.

Canal Du Nord (aerial mosaic), G-2 Intelligence, First Army, September 1, 1918. "Mosaic No. 2, between Arteux & Pallual."

Canal Du Nord (aerial mosaic), G-2 Intelligence, First Army, September 1, 1918. "Mosaic No. 4, South of Sauchy-Cauchy."

St. Quentin Canal from Bellicourt to Bellenglise (aerial mosaic with photograph of entrance to St. Quentin Canal tunnel).

Bellenglise (aerial mosaic)

Box No.

Contents

2 (cont.)

"Enemy Gas Projector Emplacements at 51bT7b22"
(photograph collage and aerial mosaic)

Other Oversized Photographs:

Oval photograph of Pvt. Thomas F. Jackson of Hallsboro
[Originally accessioned as Military Collection, WWI Papers, Private Collections, Thomas F. Jackson Papers, Box 43]

Prints of "President Woodrow Wilson," by E. G. Renesch, Chicago, 1918); and "An Old Chateau," by Julien CeLof, reprint by Brown E. Bigelow, 1934) [Originally accessioned as Military Collection, WWI Papers, Private Collections, Charles E. Lowder Papers, Box 59]

Print of Woodrow Wilson, by E. G. Renesch, Chicago
[Originally accessioned as Military Collection, WWI Papers, Private Collections, Sion H. Harrington III Collection, Box 64].

Colorized oval photograph of Pvt. David Hurley Lovelace

MILITARY COLLECTION

XI. WORLD WAR I PAPERS, 1903-1933, PHOTOGRAPHS AND POSTCARDS

of Yadkin County in Machine Gun Company, 120th Infantry, 30th Division, shown wearing the Distinguished Service Cross [Originally accessioned as Military Collection, WWI Papers, Private Collections, David Hurley Lovelace Papers].

Colorized photograph of Pvt. William R. Phillips of Waynesville (Haywood County)[seated second from left], 115th Machine Gun Battalion, 30th Division (others unknown) [Originally accessioned as Military Collection, WWI Papers, Private Collections, William R. Phillips Papers].

News and Observer (Raleigh, NC), May 20, 1917.

Advertisement for sale of Liberty Loan War Bonds and the Commercial National Bank Club.

Box No.

Contents

3 Postcards

Set of forty-six [of fifty; Nos. 9, 20, 44, and 46 missing] picture postcards of military scenes, most labeled "R. T. O. 310-602 Eng'rs"

Five postcards of a similar nature, but unnumbered and unlabeled

Eleven picture postcards of scenes from France, Germany, and Luxembourg, three with notations by "Freeman"

Two postcards to Fred A. Olds, one from Francis Cox, postmarked June 22, 1917, and the other from Marjorie Bell, August 5, 1919

Sets of souvenir picture postcards from Camp Wadsworth, Spartanburg, S.C.; Greenville, S.C.; and Brussels, Belgium