

State of North Carolina

ROY COOPER
GOVERNOR

NORTH CAROLINA ARCHIVES MONTH

2019

BY THE GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA

A PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, archival institutions are instrumental in collecting, organizing, and preserving historical materials that document the history and culture of the state of North Carolina and its people; and

WHEREAS, archival institutions provide information about and access to these materials so that people can readily study or research the significant moments and figures of North Carolina's past; and

WHEREAS, archival institutions manage records that possess legal, administrative, fiscal, and historic value; and

WHEREAS, historical information is crucial to understanding the past and to providing guidance for the future; and

WHEREAS, archival institutions assist the people of the state of North Carolina in preserving the resources that document their everyday lives and activities; and

WHEREAS, there are numerous county, municipal, college and university, and historical organizations throughout the state of North Carolina that collect and preserve historical material; and

WHEREAS, the State Archives and the State Records Center of North Carolina, established in 1903, and other archives repositories in the state see the proclamation of North Carolina Archives Month as a means of promoting the appreciation and preservation of historical material within the state;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, ROY COOPER, Governor of the State of North Carolina, do hereby proclaim October, 2019, as "NORTH CAROLINA ARCHIVES MONTH" in North Carolina, and commend its observance to all citizens.

Roy Cooper
Governor

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the Great Seal of the State of North Carolina at the Capitol in Raleigh this first day of October in the year of our Lord two thousand and nineteen and of the Independence of the United States of America the two hundred and forty-fourth.
