- 112b-115 1776 July 23. Same to Christopher Baldwin, London. Long letter concerning Josiah's drawing of bills. Incl. "Your advancements to my Son the Governor may be justly thought by him an obligation; but I know not by what logic you transfer the obligation upon me, since my purse is to be squeezed to pay his debts, contracted for the indulgence of his Vanity and Pomposity. Was it right reasoning in him to furnish the Government House like a King, because it was falsely call'd a Pallace? or himself with equipage becoming a Vice-Roy, when only a petty Governor, of a Poor Province? and this after I had sent him all my Plate, services of China, Table Linnen and my Post Chaise, little the worse for wearing, tho' my Plate was intended for my eldest Son. Yet all this did not gratify his Vanity, but he sent to England for services of Plate, a State Coach, English Horses, and half a dozen white Servants, equipped with fine liveries for which the poor Taylor Jennings is not paid I believe to this Day nor for his own apparel which I suppose was Brilliant, like the rest of his equipage and Furniture."
- 115-116b 1776 July 24. Same, Antigua to [Samuel Martin, Jr.]. Debt to Baldwin; "I have not heard of your Brother Joe these 4 months, whether any regular troops are sent to him, under what general officers, or what he is doing with ye loyal Provincials full of fear that he may be defeated by putting himself at the head of an undisciplined rabble, without the support, of regular Troops."
- 121 1776 Sept. 12. Same to "Dear Sir." Incl. having heard nothing from Josiah for over four months.

This volume consists of jottings in the nature of commentary on two volumes published by S.P.G. in 1706: An Account of the Society . . . (45 pp), and Standing Orders of the Society . . . (16pp., n.d.). Much of this commentary is taken from the correspondence of the Society, and much from a variety of printed works.

Brief notations, often of a bibliographical nature, of which the following are relevant for us: 40b; 102; 118b; 194; 196 ("The present State of Affairs in Carolina by John Ash Gent Sent by several of the Inhabitants of that Colony to deliver their Representation thereof to, and seek Redress from the Lords Proprietors of that Province. 26 June 1703. Printed Copy penes W.K.") and notation of Act of 1704; 197; 202; 205.
