

LIST OF NEGROES WHO SERVED IN N. C. LEGISLATURE

Thirty Years Has Passed Since Last
Negro Represented Section In The
North Carolina General Assembly—
Covered Period 1868 To 1899.

By FRED A. OLDS

(Raleigh Correspondent)

The story of the negro membership in North Carolina legislatures is quite interesting particularly so as a generation has grown up since the last ones served, for 30 years have passed since that era. Their participation in legislature covered a period from 1868 to 1899, both years inclusive, that is, 30 years.
