

H.C. April 21, 1784
To The General Assembly of The State of North Carolina

The Petitioner of Ned Griffin a Man of mixed Blood Humbly sheweth that a small space of Time before the Battle of Guilford a certain William Kitchen then in the Service of his Country as a Soldier Deserted from his line for which he was Turned in to the Continental Service to serve as the Law Directs— Your Petitioner was then a Servant to William Griffin and was purchased by the said Kitchen for the purpose of serving in his Place, with a solemn Assurance that if he your Petitioner would faithfully serve the Term of Time that the said Kitchen was Returned for he should be a free Man— Upon which said promise and Assurance your Petitioner Consented to enter in to the Continental Service in said Kitchens Behalf and was Received by Colo: James Armstrong at Martinborough as a free Man Your Petitioner further sheweth that at that Time no Person could have been hired to have served in said Kitchens behalf for

Name _____

Date _____ Class _____

ACTIVITY: Transcribing Selections – The Griffin Petition

Senate bill to give Ned Griffin his freedom

Part 1 (a) Ned Griffin's Petition

To The General Assembly of the State of North Carolina
The Petition of Ned Griffin a Man of mixed Blood Humbly Saieth that a Small space of Time before the Battle of Gilford a certain William Kitchen then in the Service of his Countrey as a Soldier Deser –
- ted from his line for which he was Turned in to Contenantal Service to serve as the Law Directs- Your Petitioner was then a Servant
to William Griffin and was purchased by the said Kitchen for the purpose of Serving in his place, with a Solom Assurance that if he your Petitioner would faithfully serve the Term of Time that the said Kitchen was Returned for he should be a free Man- Upon
which said Promise and Assurance your Petitioner Consented to enter
in to the Continental Service in said Kitchens Behalf and was Received by Colo: James Armstrong at Martinborough as a free Man. Your Petitioner further saieth that at the Time no Person Could have been hired to have served in said Kitchens Behalf for Soldiers in county militias who deserted were automatically drafted into the Continental line with longer terms of service and farther travel.

Why or how did William Kitchen want to use Ned Griffin?

a small sum as what I was purchased for and that at the Time that I was received into Service by said Col. Armstrong said Hitcher Openly Declared me to be free Man - The faithfull Performance of the above agreement will appear from my Discharge; some Time after Your Petitioners Petition he was Seized upon by said Hitcher and sold to a certain Peter Roberson whom now holds me as a servant - Your Petitioner therefore thinks that by Contract and merit he is Intitled to his Freedom I therefore submit my case to your Honourable Body hoping that I shall have that Justice done me as you in your Wisdom shall think I am Intitled to and Deserving of & Your Petitioner as in duty bound Will pray

N Carolina
Edgecomb County
the April 4 1784

Ned ^{his} mark Griffin

Name _____

Date _____ Class _____

ACTIVITY: Transcribing Selections, The Griffin Petition

Senate bill to give Ned Griffin his freedom

Part 1 (b) Ned Griffin's Petition

so a small sum as what I was purchased for and that at the Time that I was Recieved into Service by said Colo: Armstrong said Kitchen Openly Declared me to be free Man- The faithfull peformance of the above agreement will appear from my Discharge;-some Time after Your Petitioners Return he was Seized upon by said Kitchen and Sold to a Certain Abner Roberson who now holds me as a Servant- Your Petitioner therefore thinks that by Contract and merit he is Intitled to his Freedom. I therefore Submit my case to your Honourable Body, hoping that I shall have that Justice done me as you in your Wisdom shall think I am Intitled to and Desarving of & Your Petitioner as in duty bound Will Pray.

N Carolina
Edgecomb County
April 4th 1784

Ned X ^ his mark Griffin

Why would the purchase price for Ned Griffin be "so small a sum?"

What did Kitchen promise Ned Griffin?

How did Kitchen break his promise?

State of N. Carolina

Edgcomb County.

William Griffin is an inhabitant of said County, being first Shown, apprehended & taken, that come on July in the year 1788. that he the said deponent did bargain & sell amolatto man slave called by the name of Mrs. Griffin, to a certain William Hatcher of said County, to serve in the Continent or State service Twelve or Eighteen months at most & the said deponent saith that he sold this Mrs. for no other purpose nor intent, than to serve as aforesaid & the said deponent expect that he the said Molatto fellow Mrs. was to be a free man, & this deponent further saith that he heard the said Wm Hatcher say that the said Molatto fellow Mrs. was a free man, & that he the said Hatcher then intended to let upon the said Mrs. to serve in any respect after he had served the above said term of time & obtained a discharge from the aforesaid service. & further saith not.

The above deposition taken before me this 18th day of March 1788

N. Griffin

Name _____

Date _____ Class _____

ACTIVITY: Transcribing Selections, The Griffin Petition

Senate bill to give Ned Griffin his freedom Part 2, William Griffin's testimony

State of N^o Carolina
Edgecombe County
William Griff is an inhabi
-ter of Said County being first Sworn, deposeth & Sayeth, that Some in July in the year 178[1]. That he said deponent did bargain & Sell a molatto man Slave Called by the name of Ned Griffin, to a Certain William Kitchen of Said County to Serve in the Con -tinental or State Service Twelve or Eighteen months at most & he the s^d [said] deponent saith that he Sold the s^d [said] Ned for no other purpose nor intent than to Serve as afors^d [aforesaid] & he this ^ deponent did Expect that the said molatto fellow Ned was to be a freeman, & this deponent further saieth that he heard the said Mr. Kitchen say that the said molatto fellow Ned was a freeman, & that he the s^d Kitchen never intended to Call upon the s^d Ned to Serve in any Respect after he had Served the above said term of time & obtained a discharge from the aforesaid Servitude. & further saith not.
The above deposition taken
before me this 18th day of March 1784
Ruffin

How does William Griffin know Ned Griffin?

Does William's testimony provide any hints at his motivation for selling Ned?

State of N. Carolina.
Edgecombe County.

H. C. and 21, 184th
March y. 27. 1787

This Day Joseph Fort solemnly appeared before me, and being sworn in the holy Evangelist of Almighty God, Behaveth and saith

That in June or July in the year 1781 he was in company with William Griffin & William Kitchen of the County aforesaid. That the v. Kitchen was bargaining with the v. Griffin for a certain Mulatto man slave named Ned whom the v. Kitchen intended to put into the Continental service as a substitute in his own room, and further this Deponent saith, that he heard the v. Kitchen promise the v. Mulatto Ned, that he should be a free man provided he (the v. Ned) would ~~be~~ enter into the Continental service and discharge him (the v. Kitchen) from the same

his

Sworn before me

Robt. Digges J. C.

Joseph F Fort
mark

Name _____

Date _____ Class _____

ACTIVITY: Transcribing Selections, The Griffin Petition

Senate bill to give Ned Griffin his freedom Part 3, Joseph Fort's testimony

State of North Carolina

March [the] 27th 1784

Edgecombe County

This day Joseph Fort voluntarily appeared before me, and being sworn in the holy Evangelist of almighty God, Deposeth and Saith that in June or July in the year 1781 he was in company with William Griffin & William Kitchen of the county afores^d [aforesaid] & that the s^d [said] Kitchen was bargaining with the s^d Griffin for a certain Mulatto man Slave named Ned whom the s^d Kitchen intended to put into the Continental service as a substitute in his own Room, and farther this Deponent saith, that he heard the s^d Kitchen promise the s^d Mulatto Ned, that he should be a free man provided he (the s^d Ned) would [crossed out] enter into the Continental service and discharge him (the s^d Kitchen) from the same Sworn before me

Joseph F his [superscript] mark [subscript] Fort
Rob^t Digges [JD?]

How did Fort know Ned Griffin?

How might Fort's testimony affect the case?

State of North Carolina }
Edgecombe County } August Term 1783

Personally appeared before me Coll^d Barnes, Jm^{es} = = Strong and being duly sworn deposed and saith That on or about the first day of August in the year of our Lord one Thousand Seven hundred & Eighty one this deponent being at Martinborough in Pitt County and State aforesaid being inform = ed so Superintendent the receiving of Draughts desertors and Substitutes for the Continental Service from the district of Halifax and Newborn a certain William Hitchen who was then a deserter from the Continental Service having brought a certain Ned Griffin a molattoe or mulattoe to this deponent as a Substitute in the room of the said Hitchen to serve for the term of Eighteen Months in the Continental Service the said Hitchen upon his delivering the said Griffin to this deponent (who ever mindful of his duty and determined strictly to adhere the Laws of this state particularly to the directions there enjoined respecting the receipts of Draughts Substitutes &c I objected to the said Griffin upon this Principle that he was not perfectly satisfied of his being a freeman and the said Hitchen thereupon with the strongest

ACTIVITY: Transcribing Selections, The Griffin Petition

Senate bill to give Ned Griffin his freedom Part 4(a), James Armstrong's testimony

State of North Carolina
Edgecombe County }[??] 1783

August Term

Personally appeared before me Cole^l [Colonel] James Arm--Strong and being duly sworn deposeth and saith That on or about the first day of August in the year of our Lord one Thousand Seven hundred &
Eighty one this deponent being at Martinborough in Pitt County and State aforesaid being appoint-ed to superintend the receiving of Draughts deserters and substitutes for the Continental service from the district of Halifax and Newbern a certain William Kitchen who was then a deserter from the Continental Service having brought a certain Ned Griffen a molattoe or Mustee to this deponent as a Substitute in the room of the said Kitchen to Serve for the term of Eighteen Months in the Continental Service the said Kitchen upon his delivering the said Griffin to this deponent (who ever mindful of his duty and determined strictly
to adhere the Laws of this state particularly to the directions there enjoined respecting the receptions of Draughts Substitutes & I objected to the said Griffin upon this Principle that he was not perfectly satisfied of his being a freeman and the said Kitchen thereupon with the strongest

Name _____

Date _____ Class _____

How did Armstrong know Ned Griffin?

What was Kitchen's punishment supposed to be for deserting the militia?

affurances declared that he the said Griffen was a free man and as such delivered him to this deponent declaring and positively affirming at the same time that he had purchased the service of the said Griffen and upon his serving the said law faithfully he the said Kitchen manumitted and totally discharged him from every species of father services whatsoever. That upon those terms and solemn assurances of Kitchen only he this deponent received and enroled him the said Griffen in the Continental service accordingly.
And farther this deponent vouches that some time after the enrolment he met with William Griffen the person from whom Kitchen had purchased the service of the said Griffen he this deponent addressed himself to the said William Griffen in these words; So says the deponent Kitchen has purchased of you a certain Ned Griffen (meaning the said Ned Griffen that he had received as a free man of Kitchen for a substitute for him the said Kitchen upon which the said William Griffen answered Yes,

ACTIVITY: Transcribing Selections, The Griffin Petition

Senate bill to give Ned Griffin his freedom Part 4(b), James Armstrong's testimony assurances declared that he the said Griffin was a free-man and as such delivered him to this deponent declaring and positively affirming at the same time that he had Purchased the Service of the said Griffin and upon his Serving the said tour faithfully he the said Kitchen manumitted and totally discharged him from every [species?] of further Services whatsoever. That upon those terms and Solemn assurances of Kitchen only he this deponent received and enroled him the said Griffin in the Continental service accordingly. And farther this deponent saith that some time after the enrolement he met with Wili-am Griffin the person from whom Kitchen had purchased the service of the said Griffin he this deponent addressed himself to the said Willi-am Griffin in these words; so says this deponent Kitchen has purchased of you a certain Ned Griffin (meaning the said Ned Griffin that he had received as a free man of Kitchen for a substitute for him the said Kitchen upon which the said William Griffin answered yes,

Name _____

Date _____ Class _____

What additional testimony supports Ned Griffin's claim in this passage?

this deponent then demanded of him Cloathing for the said Ned Griffin upon which he the said William Griffin replied that he made no Contract with Pitchen when he disposed of the services of the said Ned Griffin to the said Pitchen therefore was under no obligation to comply with his requisition—

Sworn to before me

this 6th August 1783

in open Court

James Armstrong

Isaac Sepurns

A True Copy taken from the Original

Test

Edward Hall cc

Name _____

Date _____ Class _____

ACTIVITY: Transcribing Selections, The Griffin Petition

Senate bill to give Ned Griffin his freedom Part 4(c), James Armstrong's testimony

this deponent then demanded of him Cloathing for the said Ned Griffiin upon which he the said William Griffin replied that he made no Contract with Kitchen when he disposed of the Services of the said Ned Griffin so the said Kitchen therefore was under no obligation to comply with his requisition –

Sworn so before me James Armstrong
this 6th August 1783
in open Court
Isaac Sessums

A True Copy taken from the original
Test
Edward Hall [cc?]

Why would Armstrong be requesting clothing for Ned?

What does William Griffin say about his agreement with Kitchen in response to the clothing request?

Why is Armstrong's testimony significant?

State of N. Carolina
Edgecombe County }

April 2^d 1781

This Day Col. Henry Hart personally appeared before me, and being sworn on the holy Evangelist of almighty God, depose and say that,

That about the Month of June or July in the year 1781 a certain William Hatcher & William Griffin met at his House; they being then on a Bargain for & concerning a certain Man & the man named Ned who was then held as a Slave by the said

William Griffin, and that the W. Hatcher then wanted to purchase the said from the W. Griffin intending to entail him into the Continental service as a substitute in his own room & instead, the W. Hatcher then being himself a Continental Soldier; & some time

Name _____

Date _____ Class _____

ACTIVITY: Transcribing Selections, The Griffin Petition

Senate bill to give Ned Griffin his freedom Part 5(a), Henry Hart's Testimony

State of N. Carolina

Edgecombe County April [the] 6th 1784

This day Col. [Colonel] Henry Hart personally appeared before me, and being sworn on the holy Evangelist of almighty God, deposeth and saith, that about the Month of June or July in the year 1781 a certain William Kitchen & William Griffin met at his House, they being then on a Bargain for & concerning a certain Mulatto Man, named Ned who was then held as a slave by the said William Griffin, and that the s^d [said] Kitchen then wanted to purchase the s^d Ned from the s^d Griffin intending to enlist him into the Continental Service as a substitute in his own room & stead, the s^d Kitchen then being himself returned a Continental soldier, & some time

How did William Henry Hart know Ned Griffin?

after this the aforesd. William Britchen & William Griffin again met at the Chapel on Star-Priver, the aforesd. Mulatto Ned being then present, where the Bargain for & concerning the v. Ned was confirmed & Part of the purchase Money paid, and this deponents farther saith that he heard the v. Mulatto Ned several different times say that he would not enter or enter into the service unless he could not enter or enter into the service unless he could thereby obtain his freedom, & that this Depo-nent also heard the v. William Britchen say that if he (the v. Ned) would faithfully discharge his duty in the room & stead of him there v. William Britchen that he the v. Britchen would never attempt or endeavour to hold him as a slave but that he should be a free man on his performing his duty in the aforesd. service, and farther this Depo-nent saith

sworn before

Robt. Duggins J.P.

signed by Henry Hart

Name _____

Date _____ Class _____

ACTIVITY: Transcribing Selections, The Griffin Petition

Senate bill to give Ned Griffin his freedom Part 5(b), Henry Hart's Testimony

after this the afores^d [aforesaid] William Kitchen & William Griffin again met at the Chapel on Tar River, the afores^d Mulatto Ned being then present, where the Bargain for & concerning the s^d Ned was confirmed & part of the purchase Money paid and this deponent farther saith that he heard the s^d Mulatto Ned several different times say that he would not enter or enlist into the service unless he could thereby obtain his freedom, & that this deponent also heard the s^d William Kitchen say that if he (the s^d Ned) would faithfully discharge his duty in the room & stead of him the s^d William Kitchen that he the s^d Kitchen would never attempt or endeavor to hold him as a slave but that he should be a free man on his performing his duty in the afores^d service, and farther this Deponent saith not sign'd by Henry Hart Sworn before
Rob^t Digges [JD?]

How would Hart's testimony affect the case?

How did Ned advocate for himself?

H. C. APRIL 21, 1784

The Board Hear of Edward Griffin Soldier in the North Carolina Battalion and in Capt. Mills
Company having served Twelve months Being the Term for which He was Engaged is hereby discharged from the said Battalion in which we certify that He has behaved as a good & faithful Soldier

Given at Camp near

Bacon's Bridge

1st July 1782

J. M. H.

N. C. Regt.

A. Musgrave
Maine

Name _____

Date _____ Class _____

ACTIVITY: Transcribing Selections, The Griffin Petition

Senate bill to give Ned Griffin his freedom Part 6, Soldier's certification the Barer Hear of Edw[^]d [Edward] Griffin Soldier in the North Carolina Battalion and in Cap[^]tn Mills of Company having served Twelve months

Being the Term for which He was Ingaged is hearby discharged from the said Battalion in which we Certifie that he has Behaved as a good & faithful Soldiar

Given at Camp Near	[signature ???]
Bacons Bridge	of N.C. Regi [^] t
1 [^] st July 1782	[signature] Lt. Murfree [Lt. ???]
	[Maine?]

How would the soldier's certification for Ned Griffin help his case?

C H A P. LXX.

An act for enfranchising Ned Griffin late the property of William Kitchen.

Preamble.

WHEREAS Ned Griffin, late the property of William Kitchen of Edgecombe county, was promised the full enjoyments of his liberty, on condition that he the said Ned Griffin should faithfully serve as a soldier in the continental line of this state for and during the term of twelve months; and whereas the said Ned

Ned Griffin did faithfully on his part perform the condition, and whereas it is just and reasonable that the said Ned Griffin should receive the reward promised for the services which he performed;

It is therefore enacted by the General Assembly of the State of North-Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the said Ned Griffin, late the property of William Kitchen, shall forever hereafter be in every respect declared to be a freeman; and he shall be, and he is hereby enfranchised and forever delivered and discharged from the yoke of slavery; any law, usage or custom to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

A. D. 1784

Declared free.

What is the most significant phrase from this legislation?

Name _____

Date _____ Class _____

ACTIVITY: Transcribing Selections, The Griffin Petition

Senate bill to give Ned Griffin his freedom Part 7, “Act for Enfranchising”

Whereas, Ned Griffin, late the property of William Kitchen, of Edgecomb county, was promised the full enjoyments of his liberty, on condition that he, the said Ned Griffin, should faithfully serve as a soldier in the continental line of this State for and during the term of twelve months; and whereas the said Ned Griffin did faithfully on his part perform the condition, and whereas it is just and reasonable that the said Ned Griffin should receive the reward promised for the services which he performed;

Be it therefore Enacted by the General Assembly of the State of North Carolina, and it is hereby Enacted by the authority of the same, That the said Ned Griffin, late the property of William Kitchen, shall forever hereafter be in every respect declared to be a freeman; and he shall be, and he is hereby enfranchised and forever delivered and discharged from the yoke of slavery; any law, usage or custom to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

What does it mean to be enfranchised? How would it have affected Griffin?

Do you think Griffin could truly be free in a society that allowed slavery? Why?