

GLOSSARY: First Provincial Congress

boycott	refusing to buy specific things to protest something and cause change Continental Congress	during the American Revolution, this was a group of people from each of the thirteen rebelling colonies who met and formed a new government delegate	a person chosen to represent a community or region
Provincial Congress	formed by people from each county in North Carolina in 1774, this group met five times and formed the governing body of the state in 1776 resolution	a group's decision announced in public after a formal vote