1. 1789 May 1. John Hamilton, Portland Street, to "Sir"
On Dr. David Oliphant's estate in Jamaica, asking whether he may be able to recover any of the value of it as a loyalist loss. (Apparently a form enquiry sent variously to John Ashley in the Island of St. John, to David Mitchell, and Andrew Yuell in London, and to John Mitchell in Glasgow.)

Is unable to ascertain information about St. Jago, the Oliphant estate in Jamaica. The value of it is poor.

Left Jamaica some years ago and is not perfectly acquainted with the Oliphant estate called St. Jago, in Clarendon Parish, but it is a poor property.

Dr. Oliphant's estate of St. Jago, in Vere Parish, Jamaica, is not worth more than £4000 sterling and freehold, and £1000 sterling as a life tenure.

5. 1789 May 25. Andrew Yuell, Poland Street, to Col. John Hamilton.
Wouldn't give £5 for David Oliphant’s estate called St. Jago in Jamaica.

Desiring to know the quantum of his loyalist allowance.

21. 1786 Mar 25. Fanning, Edmund

Inventory of papers relating to his N.C. lands and affairs left in the care of William Johnston, deceased, but now not producible according to Richard Pennehan, executor.

Condolences upon the destruction of Fanning's and Tryon's houses by fire in New York. P.I. states that Martin has sent Tryon "by Captain Perrey, some time ago, all the papers I could collect relating to the Troubles of this Country [N.C.] during his Administration."

Ready to deliver the papers relating to William Churton's estate to Fanning or his properly empowered agent.

24. 1775 Jun 24. William Johnston, Hillsborough, to Edmund Fanning, N.Y.

On local political affairs in legislative election. John Kinchen with 192 votes and James Saunders with 190 votes, were returned; Dr. Burke was left behind (78 votes). Reasons why Fanning was not put up as a candidate.

Puzzled by a labyrinthine financial manoeuvre by Henry Bustace McCulloch. 200,000 bricks for Fanning's house are in prepare by a workman in Granville Co. Provincial Congress in Hillsborough has yet done nothing but proceedings are to be published. Includes a significant statement concerning the Transylvania Company, in which Fanning appears to have been involved.

Little of Fanning's business is being done in N.C., but Ellis Drewry has burned about 80,000 bricks for Fanning's new house.

27. 1788 May 10. Edmund Fanning, Island St. John, to Commissioners of American Claims.

Forwarding letter from one of William Johnston's executors
(Mr. Horg) and commenting on Hogg and Pennehan's conduct in rela tion to Fanning's N.C. estate. [Very faint]

28. 1787 Nov 5. James Hogg, Fayetteville, to [Edmund Fanning]

CUPY. On Fanning's estate remaining in the estate of William Johnston, dec'd.; on the chancery suit against Johnston's executors brought by the Confiscation Commissioners; on Fanning's business correspondence in N.C.; on the history of Miss Johnston's amatory sentiment, the resultant Hogg-Pennehan rupture, and the attempted Hogg-Anis duel.

29. 1786 Apr 2. Henry Ta[ylor?], Richmond, Va., to Edmund Fanning, Nova Scotia.

On business affairs relating to the N.C. estate.

30. 1785 Sep 26. John Macellan, Wilmington, [N.C.], to Edmund Fanning, Nova Scotia.

All of Fanning's N.C. property is advertised for sale, and the executors of William Johnston will reap him nothing.

31. 1784 Feb 16. Edmund Fanning, Halifax, [Nova Scotia], to Peter van Schaack, Charlotte St., London.

Forwarding evaluation of N.C. estate attested by John Macellan before Chief Justice of the state. Van Schaack already has documentation relating to N.Y. estate.

   EXTRACT. Introduces John Sym who will be engaged in the N.C. affairs of Archibald and John Hamilton. Please give him a packet to send to me, and make out a certified account of the land the firm made over to McCulloch in 1777. 77/1954/1-2.

   EXTRACT. Introduces John Sym agent of the Hamiltons' affairs in N.C. Please deliver to him the firm's papers, and send a certified account of the land the firm made over to Edward Moore, Benjamin McCulloch, and James Martin in 1777. 77/1955/1-2.

   Sym has been detained by unfavorable winds. In addition to other evidences wanted (for loyalist claim) please make a list of every debtor who has paid money into the state treasury on account of the Hamiltons or of Miller. 77/1956/1-2.

   Col. Balfour let David Oliphant free when Hamilton was suing the latter in Charleston. Now that Balfour is back in Britain, Hamilton means to see whether or not British law will hold the colonel liable. Please send an account of what part of the 30,000 lb. of tobacco was delivered to Oliphant. Hopes the General Assembly has become more moderate in respect to British debts. 77/1957/1-2.

   EXTRACT. Hopes soon to hear from Miller. Needs badly to have an account of lands made over to McCulloch and Moore, lands and Negroes made over to Martin, and Virginia property made over to John Cowper, etc. Hopes Miller will say something on account. 77/1958/1-2.

7. 1785 May 16. EXTRACT. Archibald Hamilton, Glasgow, to Thomas Miller, [Granville Co., N.C.]
   Ack. rec. of Miller's ltr of Petersburg dtd in Feb 1784; much refined by contents. Expresses dissatisfaction with Miller, with John Abernethie, with N.C. confiscation laws, and with the state of the firm's business affairs in America. 77/1959/1-6.

   EXTRACT. Has had no reply to ltr of May 16. Have you delivered the firm's papers to Mr. Sym? Please keep me informed on the N.C. Assembly. 77/1960/1-2

Ack ret of ltr of 1 Dec 1784 and 6 Jan 1785. Thanks for advice, but a trip to NC and an appearance before the General Assembly would be useless; the state doesn't even comply with the 1783 Treaty of Peace. Hopes McCulloch will deliver the packet of firm's papers to Sym and hopes McCulloch will make out the account of lands made over to him in 1777. EXTRACT 77, 194.C. 2-4

Please send a clean copy, certified, of the Hamiltons' letter of obligation which proves they made over lands to McCulloch simply to prevent their confiscation. EXTRACT 77, 194.C. 4-5
