1. 1666, 2 June. Patent for lands in Virginia. Declaration that lands bounded by rivers in Virginia granted by an earlier patent, now being confirmed. This patent declares that interest of the signatories does not impinge on grants of Carolina and interests of the Lords Proprietors. Signed by Duke of St. Albans, Lord Berkeley, William Morton and John Trottaway.
1. and 2. 1665, March 12 (lease)
March 17 (release)
Lease and release of part of Duke of Albemarle's estate in Carolina to his son, Lord Torrington. Mentions boundaries of Carolina as "extending from north end of Luke's Island and within the southern Virginia seas 30° north latitude as far as South Seas" and "extending north and eastward as far as the north end of 'Carvetuck' River or inlet upon a straight westerly line to 'Aranock Creek' which lies within or about the degree of 36° 30' northern latitude and 50° west in a direct line as far west as South Seas..."
