1709, 19 January. H. Martin to Lord Somers (Lord President of the Privy Council). Seeks to find a settlement for the Palatines; apparently offers plans for settling them at Cobham Park, Surrey, and seeks Somers' advice for scheme. Also makes suggestion for settlement abroad and asks Somers about this: are they to be dispersed or settled together as a colony. Mentions virtues of such settlement, etc.
1709, 15 July. H. Martin to Lord Somers (Lord President of the Privy Council). More concern about settlement of Palatines at Cobhan Park and continues to offer various possible advantages that may accrue to the Crown from such a settlement.

SOMERS PAPERS. Correspondence about the Palatines.

1. 1709, 20 July. Proposal by unknown author regarding the Palatines given to the Lord Chancellor (Somers). Again, proposals for settling about 500 Palatine refugee families on desired land, apparently in England. Very detailed plans for building dwellings, shops, etc., and designing employment and trades to make community self-sustaining - almost utopian in concept and planning. Asks for scheme to be proposed to Trustees for relief of Palatines. Author offers to support part of scheme himself.
