Question 3: How can I find Revolutionary War materials?

1. Go to <https://archives.ncdcr.gov/doc/search-doc>
2. Type "Revolutionary War" into the search box.

The screenshot shows the search results page for "Revolutionary War" on the Archives of North Carolina website. On the left, there is a navigation menu with categories: Repository (State Archives of North Carolina (264), Outer Banks History Center (25), Western Regional Archives, State Archives of North Carolina (5)), Collection (Foreign Archives (61), Audiovisual Materials (52), State Records (50), Private), and Series Home. The main content area is titled "Record Series and Collections" and features a search bar with "Revolutionary War" entered. Below the search bar, it shows "294 results" and a pagination control with "1" selected. To the right, there are dropdown menus for "Sort: by Relevance" and "View: Detail View". The first search result is for "Revolutionary War" with a "Creator Entity" of "Stick, David, 1919-2009" and a date of "[ca. 1958]". It includes a "Record ID" and a "view finding aid" link. Below this, there are "Parent Records" listed as "David Stick Papers | Writings | The Outer Banks of North Carolina | Research Notes and Related Material | Indexed Notes Arranged Topically". The second search result is for "Petitions (Revolutionary War)" with a "Creator Entity" of "General Assembly" and a "Record ID" of "66.8.82.2". It also includes a "view finding aid" link and "Parent Records" listed as "15 child records".

3. You can narrow your results by using the facets. Facets are the links on the left side of DOC that allow you to limit searches by certain types of information, like where the materials are located or what types of materials they are (State Agency, County Records, etc.). For example, if you want to look at government records related to the Revolutionary War, you might click on either "State Agency" or "County Records" under "Collection" to limit your results to only those records.

5. One thing to be aware of: DOC searches across all record levels. That means a general search can give you results at the collection/record group (i.e. the highest level), series, folder, and item level all in the same results. You can sort for specific levels of materials by scrolling down and selecting an option under the “Level” facets.

The screenshot displays a search interface with several facets and record details. On the left, there is a 'Record End Date' facet with three options: '1700 - 1799 (15)', '1800 - 1899 (9)', and '1900 - 1999 (10)'. Below this is a 'Level' facet, which is circled in red, with two options: 'Record Group (9)' and 'Series (8)'. To the right, there are two record entries. The first entry is for 'Petitions (Revolutionary War)' with a 'Creator Entity' of 'General Assembly' and a 'Record ID' of '66.8.70.5'. It shows '7 child records' and lists parent records including 'General Assembly Record Group', 'Session Records', and 'Session of December, 1794'. The second entry is also for 'Petitions (Revolutionary War)' with a 'Creator Entity' of 'General Assembly' and a 'Record ID' of '66.8.79.5'. It shows '18 child records' and lists parent records including 'General Assembly Record Group', 'Session Records', and 'Session of December, 1793'.
